Program

This is a repeat session of the learning opportunity offered on September 13, 2022. This learning opportunity is designed for teachers that are considering embarking on the journey to becoming a certified school administrator.

Join us for information and conversation on what qualities and skills are required to be an Administrator and Leader of Learning in a school. Discussions will cover characteristics of a lead learner, instructional leadership and accountability of school administrators in Alberta.

Participants may also be interested in registering for the LQS Principal Certification - Zone 1 Cohort Information Session on September 22, 2022. Please register at: <https://nrlc.net/program/8852>

Presenters

Cora Ostermeier

Cora Ostermeier is the Assistant Superintendent of Human Resources and Learning with Holy Family Catholic Regional Division and represents CASS Zone 1 on the NRLC Regional Stakeholder Advisory Committee.
