Program

This learning opportunity is a self-paced asynchronous learning opportunity. You will have 1 month to complete this asynchronous e-course.

Duration of training: At least 6 hours (10 hours on average)

Training Objectives

This e-learning course allows teachers and speech therapists to:

- Understand the difficulties related to learning to read to better understand them
- Assimilate the pedagogical approach of the Alphas
- Discover concrete and fun activities, both collective and individual, to become aware of phonemes and understand the alphabetic principle
- Appropriately the progression and the tools of the Alphas to work on all the graphophonological correspondences, elementary and complex
- Discover how to work on access to meaning and understanding
- Implement simple techniques to check the achievements of each child

Advantages and benefits

- Totally asynchronous format (no time constraints)
- Navigation in total autonomy, evolve at your own pace!
- Technical and pedagogical support throughout the training
- Training certificate provided at the end of the course (condition: 80% success)
- Composition of the formation
- Theoretical contributions and practical advice
- Examples of implementation with videos filmed in class
- 18 individual educational resources and 20 group activities
- Fun tests and quizzes to validate your knowledge

Training plan:

- Module 1: The steps to get into reading
